Authority

To: Good Law QLD ('Law Practice')

From: (b) ('Buyer')

Taking of Instructions

1. Unless and until the Law Practice is informed that the authority of a person named as Buyer to provide instructions is withdrawn:
 - a. each person named as Buyer authorises the Law Practice to take instructions from any person named as Buyer on behalf of all persons named as Buyer; and
 - b. if the Buyer is a company, the Buyer authorises the Law Practice to take instructions from any person who is a director or secretary of the company.

Extensions of Time

2. Each person named as Buyer acknowledges that:
 - a. the Law Practice may not take any steps in the transaction without the Buyer's instructions;
 - b. the Buyer may lose rights or, in some circumstances, the Seller may terminate the Contract if the Buyer is not available to provide instructions in relation to the transaction when required; and
 - c. the Seller is not obligated to grant any extensions of time under the Contract except in circumstances where the Contract provides the Buyer with a right to extend the Settlement Date that doesn't require the Seller's agreement.
3. If the Law Practice is unable to contact the Buyer to take instructions in relation to a time critical aspect of the Contract, each person named as Buyer:
 - a. authorises the Law Practice to seek an extension of time for the relevant due date until such time as the Law Practice is able to contact the Buyer for instructions and acknowledges that, without instructions from the Buyer, the Law Practice cannot vary the Contract or negotiate the payment of interest as a condition of an extension of time;
 - b. acknowledges that, if the Seller requests an extension of time and the Law Practice is unable to contact the Buyer, the Law Practice will be proceeding on the basis that the extension will not be granted (unless the Seller is exercising a right to automatically extend) and the Law Practice will inform the Seller accordingly if necessary reserving the Buyer's rights; and

- c. authorises the Law Practice to exercise the right of extension on behalf of the Buyer, if the Contract provides the Buyer with a right to extend the Settlement Date that doesn't require the Seller's agreement and the Law Practice determines that the Buyer's right to extend the Settlement Date should be exercised in order to protect the Buyer's rights under the Contract.

Required Forms and Declarations

- 4. Each person named as Buyer:
 - a. acknowledges that, in acting on behalf of the Buyer in connection with the purchase of the Property, the Law Practice will rely on the information provided in answers to this Questionnaire;
 - b. authorises the Law Practice to complete such forms and make such declarations on behalf of the Buyer as are necessary to conduct and complete the purchase of the Property ('Required Forms and Declarations'); and
 - c. declares that the information provided in answers to this Questionnaire is true and correct and may be used by and relied on by the Law Practice in completing the Required Forms and Declarations.

Destruction of File

- 5. Each person named as Buyer agrees that the Law Practice may destroy the Buyer's files relating to this transaction (subject to any specific instructions or legislation to the contrary) on the earlier of:
 - a. any specified time agreed between the Law Practice and the Buyer (such as a timeframe specified in a costs agreement or retainer); and
 - b. seven years after settlement of this transaction or the termination of the Buyer's engagement of the Law Practice.
